Medical Update and Other News

In April, Micah Joy had jaw surgery to improve her breathing, speech and bite in South Africa. All went very well with the surgery. Unfortunately, she developed an infection after she returned to Kenya and spent four days in Nairobi Hospital. Thankfully, the issue with the infection was resolved and Micah
Joy is doing well.

Nehemiah has fully recovered from his wisdom teeth removal that went without incident.

Miriam is thankful she has not needed surgery and is content right now being a high school freshman with all the joys and challenges that it brings.

This is the last Cox Family Newsletter with TWR. Turn over for more details.

Leaving TWR – Joining International Christian Ministries to Serve at Africa Theological Seminary

In our April newsletter (www.cox-net.com/pdf/2015.04_Cox.pdf) and March 4th blog (www.cox-net.com/changes) we shared with you how the Lord has led us to leave TWR and join International Christian Ministries (ICM – www.icmusa.org). Our service in Kenya at Africa Theological Seminary (ATS – www.atseminary.co.ke) officially starts on July 1, 2015.

Leaving TWR is like leaving family. We have been through some incredibly blessed times and some hard low valleys with our TWR colleagues. Deep friendships have been forged in the furnace of ministry and life overseas. We have been extremely honored to rub elbows with people of high spiritual caliber in TWR and we will truly miss serving with these dear friends. However, we are excited about the door that the Lord has opened for us to teach at ATS. Both Donna and I are passionate about teaching, discipling and raising up the next generation of leaders in Africa.

Cox 2015 Furlough

August through December we will be in the United States sharing what God has done the last three years with TWR and what God will be doing through ATS. Many of you have already contacted us and we look forward to seeing you. If you would like to get together with us, please drop us an email: family@cox-net.com Nehemiah will be starting college and Micah Joy and Miriam will return to Kenya to continue at RVA; hence you are stuck with just Donna and Paul.
